

Pettirosso Productions

*A Division of Masi Art, LLC
Robin Masi, Artist and Playwright*

Coming soon to Concord, Massachusetts

*Self Portrait as the Allegory of Painting (La Pittura) c. 1638-9
Oil on canvas; 98.6 X 75.2 cm, Royal Collection Trust*

Vanishing Point: The Lost Painting of Artemisia Gentileschi

*A Workshop Production: This play is in development and the actors will be reading from scripts.
Think first draft of the performance!*

Written and Costume Design by Robin Masi (Carlson)

Directed by Zach Swasta

This play intertwines the story of Baroque Artist Artemisia Gentileschi and Gregory Buchakjian a contemporary Lebanese art historian into a tale of intrigue, passion and discovery.

Artemisia Gentileschi was a well-known painter during the Italian Baroque period. She experienced many tragedies that she successfully overcame with strength, courage, persistence and a fierce talent. Among her patrons were European royalty, the papacy, and the esteemed collectors of Italy including the Medici family. In the 1630s she painted a work that was the culmination of all her creativity, intelligence, struggles, and triumphs. However, it became lost to history.

Saturday June 21

First Parish Church, Concord, MA: $10 dollar cash donation appreciated

21 Pine Street, Concord, MA, 01742.

robinmasi@comcast.net; <http://www.robinmasi.com>